OPSMIND ENTERPRISE POLICY: EXTENDED SICK LEAVE

Document ID: POL-HR-2026-04 | Department: People & Culture / Human Resources

1. POLICY OVERVIEW
OpsMind is committed to supporting full-time employees facing medical hardship.
This policy outlines entitlement, compensation, and return-to-work protocols.

2. ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA
All regular full-time employees who have completed at least 90 days of continuous service are eligible to apply for Extended Medical Sick Leave.

3. MEDICAL DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENTS
For any continuous illness exceeding 3 consecutive business days, employees must submit a formal medical certificate signed by a licensed physician or medical specialist.
The certificate must confirm incapacity to work without disclosing confidential diagnoses.

POL-HR-2026-04 (PAGE 2): BENEFIT AND COMPENSATION

4. SICK LEAVE COMPENSATION TIERS
Extended medical leave provides statutory and company-supplemented compensation as follows:
- Weeks 1 through 4: 100% of standard base salary covered by corporate health program.
- Weeks 5 through 12: 75% of standard base salary covered.
- Beyond 12 weeks: Transition to Long-Term Disability (LTD) insurance benefit program.

5. MAXIMUM DURATION
The maximum allowable continuous extended sick leave under this policy is 12 weeks in any rolling 12-month calendar period.

6. CONTINUATION OF BENEFITS
Full medical, dental, and life insurance benefits remain active during the entire 12-week period.

POL-HR-2026-04 (PAGE 3): RETURN-TO-WORK PROTOCOL

7. FIT-FOR-DUTY CLEARANCE
At least 5 business days prior to the planned return date, the employee must provide a Fit-for-Duty clearance document from their attending physician.

8. REASONABLE WORKPLACE ACCOMMODATIONS
Employees may request temporary phased return (e.g., 20 hours/week for the first month), ergonomic office modifications, or temporary remote working arrangements.
HR and the direct manager will schedule an alignment meeting 3 days prior to resumption.